Research Grant

Eligibility Criteria

Applicants must be Singapore citizens or Permanent Residents of Singapore

Nature of Research

The project should be an original empirical research with specific focus in the area of addiction. There is no restriction on the methodology of the research. The research is not limited to projects leading to an academic degree, as long as it is deemed to further knowledge in the field of addiction.

Grant Amount

Successful applicants shall receive direct reimbursement of direct expenses incurred on the research project up to a maximum of $2000 per award.

Disbursement of Grant

All approved projects shall receive a one-time disbursement of fund amounting to $1000 at the commencement of the project. The remaining amount of $1000 shall be reimbursed upon completion and submission of the research paper to APSAC.

Condition of Grant

Successful applicants shall submit a copy of the entire research report to APSAC upon completion of the project. APSAC will be permitted to reproduce or report the summary and parts of the research on its website, annual reports, newsletters, and other document or medium for the purpose of informing the public on the study findings. In all these publications, the author(s) of the research report shall be clearly stated. Successful applicants should also be prepared to present their findings at relevant platforms.
